SYLLABUS FOR COURSE <PRE-IELTS ENGLISH---SPEAKING>

课程名称： 预备雅思口语英语

适用专业： 物流管理（中澳合作）专业（一年级，第一学期）

总学时： 64

一、本课程的性质、目的和任务

（一）说明：

- 1、课程性质： 必修课程 专业基础课程
- 2、课程课时： 总计 64 课时，每周 4 课时

（二）目的：

This course focuses on the preparation of the students taking IELTS Speaking. It aims to allow student to be familiar with the testing modules and how the speaking tasks are being fulfilled. In this course, student will learn the basic to a complex way of answering questions, communicating with people, making a short presentation and discussing or arguing on the designated topics used in the IELTS test.

Samples, models, and other materials that will help the student to practice in a manner which conveys of that in the actual IELTS test such as time bound.

（三）任务：

This course is designed to help you acquire, understand, and use the skills needed to become a competent and proficient speaker of the English language. During this course, you will learn to communicate articulately, accurately, and with nuance. This is important so that you learn to speak in such a way that you can interact with English speaking people in such a way that they understand the meaning in your words and not just the definition of the word. You will also learn about language acquisition, how class and gender affect speech, rules of conversation, etc. This course will not only focus on how you, the individual, will use language, but how it is used socially, because, after all, that is what language was originally for. Now we use language in a solitary way, for example when we read, but language was originally designed to allow us to act as social animals and it still serves that primary function. Hopefully by the end of the course you will be able to speak spontaneously and with ease.

（二）目的：

This course focuses on the preparation of the students taking IELTS Speaking. It aims to allow student to be familiar with the testing modules and how the speaking tasks are being fulfilled. In this course, student will learn the basic to a complex way of answering questions, communicating with people, making a short presentation and discussing or arguing on the designated topics used in the IELTS test.

Samples, models, and other materials that will help the student to practice in a manner which conveys of that in the actual IELTS test such as time bound.

（三）任务：

This course is designed to help you acquire, understand, and use the skills needed to become a competent and proficient speaker of the English language. During this course, you will learn to communicate articulately, accurately, and with nuance. This is important so that you learn to speak in such a way that you can interact with English speaking people in such a way that they understand the meaning in your words and not just the definition of the word. You will also learn about language acquisition, how class and gender affect speech, rules of conversation, etc. This course will not only focus on how you, the individual, will use language, but how it is used socially, because, after all, that is what language was originally for. Now we use language in a solitary way, for example when we read, but language was originally designed to allow us to act as social animals and it still serves that primary function. Hopefully by the end of the course you will be able to speak spontaneously and with ease.

Be well-prepared for the coming IELTS Reading intensive training and IELTS Test in the near future.
